

WOW's Staff Recognition and Reward Programmes

Improve productivity, morale and drive focus around key company objectives through direct, on-the-spot rewards.

Align staff to your key strategic focus areas and build a high-performance culture

Targeted communication, choice of rewards, audit trails and daily administration – we do it all for you, so you can focus on your business

Recognise and reward staff for achieving stretched targets linked to softer behaviour metrics

Why a Staff Recognition and Reward programme?

Our Approach

We listen to clearly understand what you want to achieve

We design
a customised recognition and reward programme to meet your strategic imperatives

We launch
the recognition and reward programme face-to-face to all staff

We teach your employees – what's expected of them and what is in it for them

We measure
the success of the recognition and reward programme, continuously

We communicate with all staff, where they are now and where we want them to be

We reward deserving staff for their hard work and effort

We re-measure constantly stretching, constantly affirming, constantly tracking performance and ensuring alignment

Why WOW?

Proven expertise across industries and sectors with staff numbers ranging from 300 to 27,000

Value-driven, flexible and creative by nature, designing customised solutions to suit your specific business needs

What's in it for you?

"An engaged organisation can boost revenue by up to 18% per employee" – Gallup
The State of the American Workplace 2017
